

A Prayer, to be vsed with the other Prayers of the day, so long as His Maiesties Nauie and forces are abroade.

Most gracious God, and mercifull Father; Thou art the Lord of hosts, all victorie ouer our Enemies, all safety against them is from thee: Wee humbly beseech thee to goe forth with our Armies, and blesse them: That thy selfe wouldest be with their wind, and Anchoz at Sea, & with their sword and shield at Land: That wisedome may attend all their counsels; and courage and successe all their enterprises: That so thou by them wilt be pleased to bring safety to this Kingdome; strength and comfort to Religion; and victorie and reputation to our Countrey. Blesse likewise, we beseech thee, the Armies of our Friends and Allies, giue them victorie in thy cause, and preserve them from the might and the malice of their and our enemies. And when thou hast blessed both them and vs, and our most gracious King and State by their seruice, grant good Lord, that their Returne may be with safety and honour to heale our many afflictions; and that our thankfulnesse may then blesse thee for shewing mercie to vs thy vnworthy, yet penitent and faithfull seruants.

Grant this for thy deare Sonnes sake Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

By His Maiesties speciall Commandement.
